

Southeast transect

Southeast transect

Southeast transect

- Minimally-shocked Coconino ejecta is present in the upper portion of the ejecta blanket <100 m from the rim (drill hole 24) and as a ~6 m thick lens ~230 m from the rim (drill hole 19)
- There is mixing of Kaibab and Moenkopi throughout the entire transect